

Nemo Publishing's Crew

The Undersea Adventures of Capt'n Eli

Author / Artist

Jay Piscopo is the author & illustrator of The Undersea Adventures of Capt'n Eli graphic novel series. Piscopo co-created The Scrap City Pack Rats, art directed the award-winning Fizz & Martina Math Adventures, & was an animator for ABC TV's Squigglevision.

Book Consultant

Kirsten Cappy is the owner of Curious City; a children's book marketing, selection & event consultation business bringing kids closer to the grand books created for them.

Publicist / Project Manager

Tami Kennedy was an Emmy Award winning project manager & director of cultural programming at Maine Public Broadcasting before forming Nemo Publishing with Jay Piscopo & Fred Forsley.

Card Game Designer

Ed Evans is the co-owner & managing partner of All Things Fun! the Mid-Atlantic region's premiere game & comic retailer.

Co-Founder

Fred Forsley - The Capt'n Eli series was inspired by Fred's father – WW II veteran Dr. Eli Forsley of Gray, Maine. Eli was known as a great storyteller & for his spirit of fun. Stand by for adventure as Nemo Publishing carries on that tradition!

Marketing Assistant

Brandon Mazer is a graduate of Bowdoin College & is currently attending law school at the University of Southern Maine where he splits his time between pursuing his degree & working with the Capt'n Eli crew.